SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. Possession of Weapon - Defendant shall not possess, have under his control, or have access to any firearm, explosive device, or other dangerous weapons, as defined by federal, state or local law.
2. Warrantless Search - To ensure compliance with all conditions of release, the defendant shall submit to the search of his person, and any property, residence, or automobile under his/her control by the probation officer, or any other authorized person under the immediate and personal supervision of the probation officer without a search warrant, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. Provided, however, defendant shall be required to submit to any such search only if the probation officer has reasonable suspicion to believe defendant has violated a condition or conditions of release.
3. Restitution Obligation - Defendant shall make restitution to the victims, (see attached Restitution List), in the amount of $3,368,000.00, payable immediately. Any balance remaining at the time of defendant's release from incarceration shall be payable at a rate of ten percent (10%) of gross income, subject to adjustment based on the ability to pay. The obligation for restitution shall be payable jointly and severally with Sharon Hampton, Jay Langer and Robert Stone.
4. Debt Obligation - Defendant shall be prohibited from incurring new credit charges, opening additional lines of credit, or negotiating or consummating any financial contracts, without the approval of the probation officer.
5. Access to Financial Information - Defendant shall provide the probation officer any requested financial information, including personal income tax returns, authorization for release of credit information, and any other business financial information in which the defendant has a control or interest.
6. Report to Probation Officer After Release From Custody - Defendant shall report in person to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released, within 72 hours of release from custody.
